JOURNAL OF PUBLIC MANAGEMENT & SOCIAL POLICY

Call for Manuscripts

The purpose of the Journal of Public Management and Social Policy is to provide a forum for scholarly research addressing diverse issues. Manuscripts in four areas of research: politics, economics, equity, and the environment are welcome. JPMSP publishes theoretical, applied, and/or discussion papers on public administration, political science, and public policy issues associated with the process of economic, educational, environmental, political and social well-being of diverse populations. JPMSP also accepts book reviews and review essays designed to bring literature to the attention of a wider readership.

All papers submitted to the Journal of Public Management and Social Policy are peer-reviewed by at least three outside reviewers in a double blind process. The journal is an ASPA section journal.

Manuscripts should be forwarded electronically to:
Managing Editor, Marc Fudge (mfudge@csusb.edu) or (jpmsspmanuscripts@gmail.com) and cc'd to
Editor-in-Chief Andrew I.E. Ewohai (ewohai@tsu.edu) &
Senior Associate Editor Nicholas Alozie (alozie@asu.edu)

Case Study manuscripts should be forwarded electronically to:
Case Study Editor, Charles E. Menifield (Charles.menifield@rutgers.edu)

Proposal for symposia should be forwarded electronically to:
Symposium Editor, Brian N. Williams (bnwillia@uga.edu)

Manuscripts should conform to the following guidelines: title, name, address, and organizational affiliation on the first page. On the second page include the title, abstract, keywords, and begin the text. Papers accepted for publication must follow the Chicago Manual of Style. Submission to JPMSP implies that your article has not been simultaneously submitted to other journals or previously has not been published elsewhere. The blind, peer review process normally takes up to eight weeks.

CONFERENCE OF MINORITY PUBLIC ADMINISTRATORS

COMPA IS A NATIONAL SECTION OF THE AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION (WASHINGTON, DC)

The Conference of Minority Public Administrators (COMPA) is one of America's leading national organizations committed to excellence in public service and public administration in city, county, state, and federal government.

COMPA was established in 1971 as a broad-based minority membership section of the American Society for Public Administration (ASPA).

COMPA strives to provide a forum for leadership and professional development of minority public servants and administrators. COMPA enables its members to attain their career aspirations by identifying employment opportunities through networking, conference participation, publication, and affiliation with other minority professional development organizations.

Public Performance & Management Review

Public Performance & Management Review is a scholarly forum that addresses a broad range of factors influencing the performance of public and nonprofit organizations and agencies. Its objectives are to facilitate the development of innovative techniques and encourage a wider application of those already established; stimulate research and critical thinking about the relationship between public and private management theories; present integrated analyses of theories, concepts, strategies and techniques dealing with productivity, measurement and related questions of performance improvement; and provide a forum for practitioner-academic exchange. Continuing themes include managing for productivity and evaluating performance, improving budget strategies, managing human resources, building partnerships and applying new technologies. Published by M.E. Sharpe (www.mesharpe.com).

Papers accepted for publication must follow the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (fourth edition). Please submit your manuscript electronically as an e-mail attachment written in MS Word to Editor-in-Chief Marc Holzer, mholzer@pipeline.com and to Managing Editor Kaifeng Yang, kyang@fsu.edu

Chinese Public Administration Review

Chinese Public Administration Review is the first international academic journal specifically addressing the issues of Chinese public administration: administrative reform, public policy, administrative law, public productivity improvement, performance measurement, civil service, social security, public finance, e-government, intellectual history of public administration in China, comparative public administration, etc.

Please send manuscripts via e-mail to both Editor-in-Chief Marc Holzer, mholzer@andromeda.rutgers.edu and to Managing Editor Mengzhong Zhang, menzhong@yahoo.com.

Public Voices

Public Voices is a unique journal that focuses on historical, artistic and reflective expression concerning public administrators and the public service. It is the official journal of the Section on Historical, Artistic and Reflective expression of the American Society for Public Administration.

The publication welcomes reviews of novels, literature, popular fiction, a series of works by one author, scholarly books, films, art, etc. For manuscripts, submit five copies, with the author's name and affiliation on a separate cover page, to: Managing Editor Iryna Illiash e-mail: illiash@pegasus.rutgers.edu.
